

VALPARAÍSO AND VIÑA DEL MAR EXCURSION

Full day Valparaíso and Viña del Mar Excursion

Duration: 8 Hours on tour

Operative: Thursday to Sunday

Itinerario

Departure from your hotel along Route 68 towards the Port of Valparaíso. We will cross the fertile Casablanca Valley, today converted into a center of wine development, with the presence of several important vineyards with world-famous production. Arrival at the Port of Valparaíso, declared a World Heritage Site. We will start by Bellavista Hill where the La Sebastiana House-Museum is located, which belonged to the Poet Pablo Neruda, Nobel Prize for Literature. It is a unique house that stands out for its sui generis interior, full of memories and novel elements, which the bard put together during his life. Then we will move to the viewpoints of Alegre and Concepción Hills to feel and pulse the port activity from above and the daily life of the “Porteño”, with a walking tour to also appreciate the beautiful and artistic graffiti that adorn some facades.

We will go down in El Peral elevator, to visit the map of the city with; Maritime Government, Sotomayor Square and Prat Pier. Then we walk along the waterfront to get to Viña del Mar and visit its main tourist icons such as: The Flower Clock, Palace and Park of the same name with the famous Quinta Vergara stage that hosts the renowned Viña del Mar Song Festival every year. Later we will travel through Libertad avenue to visit the interesting Fonk Museum on a human scale. Last stop at the renovated Vergara Dock to start the return to Santiago in the afternoon, directly to the capital. Arrival in Santiago at the hotel.

End of the excursion.
